

Mettingham, May 22, 1849

My Dear Bishop of Exeter,

I write these few hasty lines, in hope, that I may just save the post, to say that I have drawn a Rem. for £110. 19. 9, being the balance of £130 owing to this Diocese minus £11. 0. 3, the amount 2 is left for books, forwarded to my order by the ^{Dioc.} Committee

Yours truly,
The Secy Bishop,
of Exeter

2 the ~~last~~ Society 2 the
S. P. G., L. C. P. C. &c., at Lydney I shall be obliged to your friendship, if you will have the kindness to ~~write~~ ^{write} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~kindness~~ ^{kindness} that will ~~be~~ ^{be} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~account~~ ^{account} ~~between~~ ^{between} ~~us~~ ^{us} ~~will~~ ^{will} be settled. -

A gentleman has been with me at the morning before morning meeting, connected with my charge ~~to~~; and I have only just time to subscribe myself as, my dear Bishop, your very affectionate brother in Christ
