My dear Sir

I should imagine that my signature, which I return affixed to the Proceedings of Monday last will afford a sufficient guarantee of my approval and cooperation without any further communication between me and His Excellency. This I mention because it may not be in my power to see him tomorrow, and it would be a pity that Robert Campbell Esq^r the the Deputation should lose the the Church move me considerably. opportunity of proceeding in the Believe me to be business as early as possible.

I will give attentive consideration to Mr F. Mitchell's proposal; and he shall have my final determination before I go to the Hunter. My reluctance to surrender the property for so long a period is not quite overcome. Though the temptation of securing such an income as would enable us to borrow the money required for finishing the
