

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE AND SOCIAL REFORM COMMITTEE,
DIOCESE OF SYDNEY.

Chapter House,

Bathurst Street,

SYDNEY, 6th November, 1913.

To the Inspector-General of Police,

Hunter Street,

CITY.

Dear Sir,

We are instructed to call your attention to two shops in the city and the pictures displayed therein. One is the American Novelty shop in Pitt Street next the General Post Office, in the top part of whose window are photos of a degrading character exhibited and also to similar exhibitions in another shop, also in Pitt Street, but near the Circular Quay.

Trusting you will give this your attention,

Yours faithfully,

Clerical Secretary.

Lay Secretary.
