Summary: The World in the Fourth Gospel

1. Narrative tension

2. A metanarrative

3. A Challenge to Belief

4. A Stimulus to Mission

in the context of opposition

5. The Character of God

Lecture 3: Living with the Allure of the world

1 John 2:15-17 Do not love the world or the things that belong to the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. For everything that belongs to the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride in one's lifestyle—is not from the Father, but is from the world. And the world with its lust is passing away, but the one who does God's will remains forever.

Part A: Reading 1 John 2.15-17

1 John generally

The context of 1 Jn 2.15-17

Imperatives and implications

The exhortation (v 15)

The reason: the love of the Father (v 15)

The definition (v 16)

'Out there' or 'in here'?

The desires of the flesh

The lust of the eyes

The pride in one's lifestyle

The reason: the futility of the world (v 17)

Conclusions

Simple...

And yet...

Understanding and application

Out there or in here once again...

A world too good?

Attached too strongly to a good thing

We can do this...

At the heart of the world is humanity with the world at its heart.

Part B: The world in the rest of 1 John

Familiar themes

God's love (2.2; 4.9, 14)

The world's ignorance and hatred of believers (3.1, 13)

The abode of false prophets and antichrist (4.3, 5; 5.19)

Overcoming the world (4.4)

A victory won

John 16.33

Sharing in a victory won

By faith (1 Jn 5.4-5)

In love

Keep yourself from idols (1 Jn 5.18-21)

The function of the world language

Part C: Revelation

Reading Revelation

Revelation 18

A choice to be made

The notorious prostitute

17.1-6: A portrait

17.7-18: the reality

18: Babylon the Great has fallen

Revelation 11:15: the kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and Messiah

Summary

Summary and Reflection

Lecture 5: Living with the Word in the World

So far...

Part A: The enduring problem

1. The classic paradigm: H. Richard Niebuhr, Christ and Culture.

Christ against Culture

Christ of Culture

Christ above Culture

Christ and Culture in paradox

Christ transforms culture

Some brief comments

Some common criticisms

Still a classic

Modern evangelical discussions...

2. Some alternative paradigms:

purity from, defensive against, relevant to, faithful presence within condemn, critique, copy, consume, create

Some brief comments:

Life's complex/times change/which world?

Gestures and postures

3. An alternative suggestion

The story of the word and the world

What does the word do?

Teaches

Corrects

Rebukes

Trains in righteousness

What does this mean?

Part B: Thinking about our world

Diversity

Dissolution

Opportunity

Concluding two moments...

The first Adam

The last Adam
